

MAINLAND REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL
LINWOOD, NEW JERSEY

MRHS TEACHER RECOGNITION PROGRAM
2009-2010

OVERVIEW

Dedicated, top quality teachers are the key to the success of Mainland Regional High School and the Board of Education wishes to recognize our fine teachers. By acknowledging teacher's achievements, the MRHS Board of Education wishes to increase the stature of teaching, attract talented people to teaching careers, and encourage experienced teachers to remain in the educational profession.

SELECTION PROCESS

Mainland Regional High School parents, students and community members are invited to nominate teachers for this award. Entries must be received by Wednesday, February 10, 2010, at 2:30 PM. The criteria that you are asked to consider reflects the NJ State Teacher of the Year Program. A selection committee composed of teachers, school administrators, parents, and other citizens will review the nominations and determine a recipient on Tuesday, February 16, 2010.

Teachers nominated should be leaders that reflect the following:

- * Poses knowledge of the most current education topics;
- * Poses knowledge of the most current teaching and learning strategies;
- * Have impacted student achievement and professional learning at the school level;
- * Demonstrate the ability to inspire the love of learning in students of all backgrounds and abilities;
- * Have long-range potential for leadership opportunities.

Teachers nominated must have received exemplary local district evaluation reports and have acceptable personnel records devoid of recent sanctions or deficiencies.
